

In celebration of Stockport Grammar School's 100th Anniversary at the Hallam Site we are delighted to present mounted limited edition prints of Main Quad and View from the Sports Field by the distinguished artist Clifford Bayly, R.W.S.

Clifford Bayly, R.W.S. was born in London and trained at St Martin's and Camberwell Schools of Art, Clifford Bayly was elected a Fellow of the Royal Watercolour Society in 1984. He was, for twenty years, head of Graphic Design Degree Courses at Maidstone College of Art and has exhibited regularly at the Royal Academy Summer Exhibition and Bankside Gallery, home of the Royal Watercolour Society. The artist has been a winner of the prestigious annual Singer Friedlander/Sunday Times National Watercolour competition.

These limited edition prints are signed and numbered by the artist. Printed on totally acid free paper, using only colourfast inks, each print has an image size of 10" x 15" and is presented in a specially commissioned mount to celebrate the School's 100th year at the Hallam Site. The prints are available for £55 each (including UK postage and packaging) with all profits being donated to The Stockport Grammar School Bursary Fund.
