

Stockport Grammar Junior School

Behaviour Procedures - Rewards and Sanctions

These procedures apply to all pupils at Stockport Grammar Junior School including those in our EYFS settings and should be read in conjunction with the Whole School Behaviour and Discipline Policy

All pupils, in EYFS, KS1 and KS2 are expected to treat one another with care, courtesy and consideration. Here are our five Golden Rules:

We are honest and treat everyone with respect
We have good manners
We always try our best and never give up
We move around the school sensibly
We are proud of our school and look after it!

Rewards

Rewards are an intrinsic part of reinforcing good behaviour within the school and are used to encourage and develop an ethos of kindness and cooperation both in and out of the classroom. Rewards can be used for effort, quality work, consistency, helpfulness, courtesy and manners and other reasons deemed appropriate by a member of staff.

Sanctions

We try at all times to be positive in our response to behaviour which has fallen below the expected standard but sometimes it is necessary to take action. Pupils who choose not to behave in an acceptable manner will go through a series of consequences. They will understand that these sanctions are as a direct result of their choice of behaviour. Some punishments will be bypassed for serious offences. However, all pupils are treated proportionally and reasonably.

Sanctions for inappropriate behaviour, either in or out of the classroom, should be given immediately if possible. In most incidences, the member of staff initially concerned about any incident(s) of poor behaviour will deal with it using the sanctions listed. They will usually make the class teacher aware of the incident(s) and have the option to involve the Deputy Head at any point as appropriate. Any children of concern are discussed at the weekly staff meeting.

Infants (including Nursery)

Pupils are expected to behave in a socially acceptable way, with regard for other children, their feelings and belongings. Our School Golden Rules form the basis of the EYFS and Infant code of behaviour.

We are honest and treat everyone with respect
We have good manners
We always try our best and never give up
We move around the school sensibly
We are proud of our school and look after it!

To work alongside these rules, staff will monitor the behaviour of the individual through a 'Sun, Cloud and Rainbow' system. Each classroom displays a rainbow, sun, grey cloud and storm cloud. Attached to the sun are individually named pegs which move to the clouds for behaviour that is deemed inappropriate and to the rainbow for particularly good behaviour.

The children move the pegs themselves so they take ownership of their behaviour. In Nursery, staff will help the child to move the peg; in other classes children are encouraged to move their own peg. This system is to reward those children who behave well.

In Nursery, rewards and sanctions are to be employed by the class teacher. The teacher will use their discretion to remove the child, for a short period of time, from an activity the child particularly enjoys or to allow the child to be the first to choose if on the rainbow. In all EYFS/KS1 classes, if a child is put on the storm cloud the parents will be informed. If a child is put on the rainbow, a rainbow sticker will be given to them when they move their peg, with the question 'ask me why I am on the rainbow?'

Nursery procedures

The teacher has overall responsibility for behaviour management within the Nursery. Children are praised and good behaviour is always highlighted and commended. Activities are organised so that they have a positive impact on behaviour and foster sharing, negotiation and co-operation. Clear expectations and boundaries for behaviour are established and children are reminded of acceptable, and unacceptable, behaviour in Nursery.

Rewards

- Staff praise a child's good behaviour by making it clear how pleased they are with the child and use the child's good behaviour as a role model for other children.
- Staff reward good behaviour with a sticker, allowing the child to be leader in the line or do a "special" job, choose a story/activity etc.
- Staff tell parents how well their child has worked or behaved.
- Staff ask a child to show other staff the child's work/ what they have made.
- Staff may complete a 'wow moment' for the child.
- Staff display a child's work.
- Staff tell other children what a child has done and why they are so pleased with him/her.
- Staff get other children to reward a child with a round of applause or to congratulate him/her in some other way.

Sanctions

- Staff explain why the behaviour is unacceptable and remind the children of how we expect them to behave.
- A "look" or saying the child's name is often enough.
- If poor behaviour is repeated, the child may miss some activity time, a quiet cooling off period may be required or to sit apart from others.
- Children are expected to apologise to the appropriate person/people for any incidents of poor behaviour.
- We believe in working in partnership with parents so that they can reinforce Nursery expectations

Infant procedures

Rewards

- Immediate reward: This may take the form of verbal praise, smiley face, star, sticker, reward stamp and the child moving their peg to the rainbow and is awarded by the teacher when the work or action is completed. It should be entered into the child's work if appropriate. At the discretion of individual teachers additional strategies may also be in place to support their class.
- Golden time.
- Class teachers have regular contact with parents and can give positive feedback to parents at the end of the day as to how well a child has worked or behaved.
- Those children who achieve an outstanding piece of work or need recognition for personal achievement, consistency or progress may be sent to the Phase Leader, Head or Deputy Head, for congratulations and some form of recognition (sticker etc.).

- Each week, Infant success is celebrated at an assembly. Certificates, medals etc. gained both in school and outside of school are awarded. Children who have received a special award stand up to be congratulated.

Sanctions

- The Cloud System:
Minor incidents, such as persistent shouting out during lessons, talking out of turn, disturbing other pupils' work etc. will warrant a child moving their name peg from the sunshine to the grey cloud.
Persistent inappropriate behaviour will justify a child moving from the grey cloud to the storm cloud or a child moving from the sunshine straight to the storm cloud. If deemed appropriate, a child's behaviour may be directed straight to the Phase Leader responsible for the year group, or, the Deputy Head, bypassing the Cloud system. Behaviour for such a decision may include, hitting, kicking, pushing, biting, hurting others, general rudeness or bad language. If deemed appropriate, the class teacher will inform the parents and / or the member of staff responsible for behaviour management of the key stage. If a child's behaviour continues to be unacceptable, the parents are invited in to school for a discussion as to how school and home can assist the child in a programme of rewards and sanctions to modify and improve behaviour.
- The teacher will talk to the child and explain that the behaviour is unacceptable and will reiterate the expected behaviour.

Additional sanctions used in the Infants include:

- For poor behaviour on the playground a child may be withdrawn from playing with the other children and will have to stand by the duty person or a quiet area for a period of time. For persistent poor behaviour, a child may be withdrawn from the playground altogether and spend a supervised playtime inside with the Phase Leader.
- To promote positive behaviour an individual star chart / target chart may be set up for a child whose behaviour is causing concern. Targets will be set within a short time span so that the child has a goal to work towards. These targets will be discussed with the child, and usually with parents, so that they are clear as to what they are working towards.
- Children whose behaviour is falling below expectations can be sent to the Phase Leader responsible for the year group, or, the Deputy Head.
- Within the EYFS and Infants, an open-door policy is operated and staff work closely with parents. Issues raised by parents are to be dealt with immediately and parents are to be informed of any concerns, serious incidents or regular occurrences of bad behaviour. The Phase Leader responsible for the year group, or, the Deputy Head should be kept informed as necessary.

Specialist teachers, support staff and midday assistants are aware of the system in order to achieve consistency across the curriculum. Any concerns regarding a child's poor behaviour is to be reported, in the first instance, to the class teacher. He or she may then wish to forward the concern to the Phase Leader responsible for the year group, or, the Deputy Head.

In order to support staff in upholding the school's behaviour policy, the Phase leaders and the Deputy Head are responsible for behaviour management issues and providing colleagues with guidance and advice should ordinary methods prove to be ineffective. If necessary, matters may be forwarded to the Headmaster.

It is vital that all the staff are consistent with their discipline and have a clear understanding of the behaviour policy. Teachers and support staff constantly look for ways to reinforce good behaviour throughout the day with praise and encouragement.

Junior procedures

Rewards

- Verbal praise and encouragement.
- House points for effort, improving work, kind words / deeds, leadership, responsibility, showing initiative, displaying pride for school and other positive actions.
- Teachers' own rewards (stickers, notes in book etc.)
- Gold, Silver and Bronze awards – awarded in assemblies by the Headmaster for the accumulation of house points over an academic year.
- Merit Cards: awarded for an individual piece of work or a project that has exceeded the expectation based upon a pupil's ability.
- Children and/or work may be sent to the Headmaster, Deputy Head or Deputy Head (Academic) for commendation.
- Prize Giving awards (end of academic year).
- Recognition within three weekday assemblies – pupils are encouraged to share their achievements both in and out of school with the school community.
- Positions of responsibility within Year 6 (Head Boy and Head Girl, House Captains, Sports Captains, Prefects and Playground Buddies).
- Regular features in the Junior School Newsletter, on the School's website, on the Parent Portal, on display boards and on the Digi-Board monitor in the Junior School foyer.

Sanctions

- Verbal reprimand or warning regarding future conduct.
- Pupils may be asked to complete an 'inappropriate behaviour document' at home and return to the Deputy Head the next day.
- Temporary removal of Head Boy, Head Girl, House Captain, Sports Captain, Prefect or Playground Buddy position and badge. This will be at the discretion of the Deputy Head or Headmaster but would include offences such as: persistent poor behaviour in class, persistent absence of a duty (following a reminder/warning), use of inappropriate language, fighting or poor behaviour on the sports field/court. Upon removal of the badge the pupil will be told when it will be returned to them. It is at the Headmaster's or Deputy Head's discretion whether parents are informed. A note is made by the Deputy Head in the pupil's iSams Pastoral notes section.
- Yellow Card: issued for poor behaviour, including repeated low-level incidents after warning. This may include incidences such as boisterous behaviour in playgrounds, disruption within a lesson, repeatedly talking in line or running in school. The pupil is informed of their card. Parents are not informed about a yellow card as we believe that children should be allowed to make mistakes then modify their behaviour without immediate parental involvement. However, receipt of three in a half-term will lead to the Deputy Head contacting parents and, if deemed necessary, a focused behaviour report card being issued.
- Red card: issued for serious incidences of poor behaviour. This may include behaviour that deliberately endangers themselves or fellow pupils, vandalism or inappropriate language. A Red Card will automatically lead to the Deputy Head contacting parents. Exclusion from a sports fixture, lunchtime or afterschool activity may be imposed. All details of the incident will be recorded, interview with child(ren) concerned, contact with parent(s), further sanctions and any further action to be taken. If a child holds a position of responsibility (Head Boy / Girl, House Captain, Sports Captain, Prefect or Playground Buddy), it is highly likely that a red card will lead to the removal of their badge or lanyard. The length of time of removal will vary according to the severity of the offence/s and previous conduct.
- Report Card: a focused card which a pupil is required to have signed by the relevant member of staff for all lessons and/or breaks and assemblies as deemed appropriate. This is signed by the Form Teacher and parent on a daily basis. A key aim of a Report Card is for the pupil to experience positive feedback from their improved behaviour. The report card is constantly under review and generally used for a maximum of two weeks.

There are specific arrangements relating to failure to complete work:

- Year 3: three homeworks not completed, without justification (note, email or verbal message from parent) will result in parents being contacted by the Deputy Head.
- Year 4, 5 & 6: a missed homework, without justification (note, email or verbal message from parent) will qualify for '24 hours' grace'. If, after this period of time, the homework has not been submitted in person or, if appropriate, online, this will result in parents being contacted by the Deputy Head.
