

FOUNDED IN 1487

STOCKPORT GRAMMAR SCHOOL
Stockport, Cheshire

(HMC: Independent Day School)
1050 pupils - 11-18, Co-educational

TEACHER OF PSYCHOLOGY (Full Time Maternity Cover)

A well-qualified and dynamic specialist is required, with an anticipated start date of February 2021, to join this strong and successful department.

The successful candidate will be able to teach Psychology up to A-level and prepare candidates to study Psychology at the most competitive universities. A willingness to contribute to the extra-curricular and pastoral life of the school is essential.

The Vacancy

Psychology is a Sixth Form option only. The successful candidate will be committed to and enthusiastic about the subject and be dedicated to academic rigour in the classroom.

He or she should be a passionate teacher who is willing and able to convey their enthusiasm to pupils and to undergo further professional development to broaden their skills. He or she will also be able to manage effectively and engage in strategic planning in line with whole school objectives.

Person Specification

The successful candidate is likely to be able to demonstrate the following:

- A good honours degree, a PGCE or equivalent and QTS
- Experience of delivering outstanding lessons
- Significant understanding of Teaching & Learning pedagogy
- Experience of developing and implementing Schemes of Work
- Proven ability to build close professional relationships with other colleagues
- Good skills in ICT, and in verbal and written communication
- Proven ability to develop vision, to plan and to innovate
- Commitment to continuing professional development
- Commitment to Safeguarding.