

Appendix 1

Parents' consultation

General principles

We will consult with parents when reviewing our policy for relationships education and relationships and sex education, which helps inform our decisions on when and how certain curriculum content is covered and how it is delivered. Our consultation will include giving the space and time for parents to input, ask questions, share concerns and for the School to decide the way forward.

We will listen to parents' views, and then make a reasonable decision as to how to proceed. What is taught, and how, is ultimately a decision for the School and consultation does not provide a parental veto on curriculum content or delivery.

As part of our consultation with parents we will provide examples of the resources we use, for example the books we will use in lessons. We may adapt our timescales, process and content to respond to the needs of the School.
